

RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE (RPAC)

Residential Placement Advisory Committee (RPAC)

is a supportive, cooperative process that respects the expertise of all who are involved in providing services to children and youth.

The RPAC process strives to enhance, support, and strengthen services provided to youth in care. This is accomplished through collaboration with multiple service providers that play a role in the youth planning process.

RESIDENTIAL PLACEMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE (RPAC)

Types of Review:

Mandatory - applies to children and youth placed in setting with 10+ beds.

Requested Review - A review that is asked for by anyone who acts on behalf of the child such as a family member, residence operator or CAS Worker.
